Appointment of a new Chief Executive Officer at Ofi Invest Real Estate

Ofi Invest Real Estate SAS, the real estate asset manager of the Ofi Invest group, the asset management arm of Aéma Groupe (Macif, Abeille Assurances, Aésio Mutuelle), announces the arrival of Sébastien Chemouny as Chief Executive Officer alongside Chairwoman Laurence Dumas.

Sébastien Chemouny was previously Head of France for Allianz Real Estate (now Pimco Prime Real Estate), after holding various positions within Allianz Real Estate, including Head of Asset Management and Head of Portfolio Management. Prior to that, he worked at GE Real Estate, GE North America and GE Real Estate Europe, allowing him to acquire comprehensive experience of the real estate market.

Highly committed on ESG issues, notably through his role as Chair of ULI France, Sébastien's aim is to promote and further develop Ofi Invest Real Estate's ESG approach throughout the company's various businesses and areas of expertise (Investments, Asset Management and Development, Property and Energy Management, etc.). He will also be responsible for developing the real estate asset management business among French and foreign investors.

Sébastien Chemouny holds an engineering degree from École Privée des Sciences Informatiques.

"I am delighted to have Sébastien at my side to support the development of the real estate activities of the Ofi Invest group. His knowledge of real estate markets and businesses, his cross-disciplinary expertise, his international experience and his knowledge of insurance groups are assets that will help accelerate the transformation of our model and support our ambition," said Laurence Dumas, Chairwoman of Ofi Invest Real Estate SAS.
